The Chinese Boycott A dispatch from Shanghai says that the Chinese foreign board has ordered Chou-fu, the viceroy of Nanking, to make every effort to suppress the boycott which has now been extended to English goods, imported, it is supposed, by an

Chinese merchants have asked the general chamber of commerce to assist them to suppress the movement, fearing that serious financial trouble will result. Much of the trade at Shanghai is already being transferred to Tientsin, where Gen. Yuan Shi Kai, viceroy of Pechili, bas probibited the boycott The Chinese merchant a Man a asecretly supplying the Catacse in store-land with funds to carry on the boycott against American goods. United States Cousul J. W. Davidson, who arrived at San Francisco Tuesday from Shanghai, says the Chinese boycott was started after the receipt in Shanghai of a cablegram from a Chinese correspordent in Washington to a native news-paper. This cablegram stated that the paper. This cablegram stated that the United States had prepared a new treaty embodied in which was exclusion of Chinese from America on a wholesale scale Not only laborers were to be kept out of the land of the free, but also Chinese merchants, students and rice.

The Chinese officials did all they could to arrest the movement, but without any definite understanding with this government to back their arguments, and their efforts availed little. "As a matter of fact," said Mr. Davidson, "The Chi-nese merchants want to do business with the United States, and I do not think they intended this boycott movement to go as far as it has. The boycott, how ever, is being made free use of by our competitors in the far East. German, French, Belgians, English and others are now patting the Chinese merchants on the back and advising them to go ahead and pay Uncle Sam for the humilia-tion he has heaped upon them through his method of enforcing the exclusion

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with mall children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the oldfashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of easter oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in in case of cholera infantum. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co
